

Jobs in Bridgewater: 10 Years From Now Rubric

	A	B	C	D
Outcome 7.2.3.1: Students will identify current trends and examine factors that may impact these trends	The student demonstrated a thorough understanding of employment trends and factors that impact these trends within their research and commercial.	The student demonstrated a good understanding of employment trends and factors that impact these trends within their research and commercial.	The student demonstrated they are beginning to develop an understanding of employment trends and factors that impact these trends within their research and commercial.	The student demonstrated a limited understanding of employment trends and factors that impact these trends within their research and commercial.
Outcome 7.2.3.2- Students will predict economic commodities and skills that will empower individuals and groups in the future	The student demonstrated a thorough understanding of economic commodities and skills that will empower people in the future. The predictions were clear and well thought out in the research and commercial.	The student demonstrated a good understanding of economic commodities and skills that will empower people in the future. The predictions communicated in the research and commercial.	The student demonstrated they are beginning to understand economic commodities and skills that will empower people in the future. The predictions were evident, but more research is necessary to support ideas.	The student demonstrated a limited understanding of economic commodities and skills that will empower people in the future. The predictions were not evident. Research is necessary to support ideas.
BOC 9.1 (relates to 6.1): The student is able to operate a wide variety of school media, computer, and other educationally appropriate equipment for learning, communication, and the representation of their learning, independently, and safely with teacher supervision. 4 3 2 1
RPSD 9.6 (relates to 6.3, 6.4): The student is able to select and refine a research topic, according to teacher-provided criteria, to fulfill a curriculum requirement with teacher assistance. 4 3 2 1				